JUNE 1, 1866. Dr. Maggiel :- I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last-thanks to your medicine. Oh, Doeter, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. WILSON HARVEY, New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man mployed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident :

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder: I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and anybody can see me at Jackson's Iron Work., 2d Avenue. J. HARDY, 119 Goerick Street.
